

We as humans have a direct impact on the earth.

The earth is fragile and humans do many things to harm it.

Pollution causes global warming which melts the polar ice caps.

It is our job to preserve and protect them as well as the rest of the planet.

The future of our friends depends on us.